MONEY IS FOUND IN BRUSH PILE

Mysterious Notes Lead to Discovery of Hidden Money, Believed Property of Miss Dunwoodie

FATHER AND SON RELEASED

Notes Left Under Front Door at Clark Home That Was Entered
by Thieves Sunday Night

A portion of the money believed to be the property of Miss Bertha Dunwoodie, was recovered this morning in a tin can, in the middle of a brush pile, and the mystery surrounding the circumstances of the finding has opened up new developments in the house robbing of Harvey Clark, 705 West Second street, which was entered by thieves Sunday night.

Two mysterious notes, scribbled in lead pencil and hard to read, were placed under the doorway during the night at the Clark home, and these notes lead to the discovery of the money, although the entire $107.60 which Miss Dunwoodie said was stolen, was not contained in the can.

Harvey Clark and his son Ralph, who were in jail as suspects in the case, were released this morning on their own recognizance, because the notes could not have been put there by the two prisoners.

One of the notes read, "That money that was taken is in the log pile so look. It is in them. Will keep me out of trouble and you to." The other piece of paper contained the following, "Read this is the second paper that I have put in here."

Judging from the two notes, the writer evidently put a note under the door at some other time, and it was overlooked. The two notes were taken to George W. Young, attorney for the two men held in jail and he went to the log pile and after a long search, a seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark brought out a baking powder can containing several paper bills, although the entire $107.60 was not found in the can.

When the facts were presented to Justice Stech he ordered the two prisoners released from jail without bond, because the affair brought up another person in the crime, and an effort will be made to trace the origin of the notes.

Mr. Young had possession of the money today and was willing to turn it over to the person identifying it, although it is believed that it is a part of the money stolen from Miss Dunwoodie.

Big Four detectives were here yesterday looking over the situation and

TO SEND RESOLUTION TO SENATOR WATSON

Directors of Indiana Farmers Federation Object to Delay of Truth in Fabric Bill.

DISTRICT MEETING HERE

Resolutions expressing dissatisfaction over the delay in the progress of the "truth in fabric" bill in the senate, which were adopted by the directors of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' associations in Indianapolis Wednesday, will be sent to Senator James E. Watson, who is chairman of the senate committee in charge of the bill. The measure would require woolen cloth to be stamped with statements showing the proportions of wool and shoddy
it contained.

During the session of the board,
plans were also made for meetings
in each of the ten federation districts in the state, one of which will likely be held in Rushville. Rush county is in the eighth district and Rushville is so centrally located and accessible by rail that this city was tentatively selected for the meeting.

The purpose of these meetings is to discuss agricultural problems and to strengthen the farmers' organizations. The district conventions will be two-day meetings which the district officers, state officers, county officers and county agents will be expected to attend.

KIDNAPPED PRIEST FOUND MURDERED

Body of Father Patrick Heslin
Found in Tiny Grave 30 Miles South of San Francisco.

MECHANIC PROVIDES CLEW

Suspicion Aroused by Story Told Him by Salt Lake City Woman—Shot Through Heart.

BY M. D. TRACY.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 11.— Father Patrick Heslin, kidnapped priest of Colma, California, has been found—murdered.

Six men early today, dug his crumpled body from a rude grave in a tiny cave on the windswept cliffs of Salada beach, some 30 miles south of San Francisco.

Not a man in the party knew Father Heslin in life, but identification was certain because: The body was shrouded in a cassock of broadcloth.
On it was a medal bearing the likeness of Christ on one side and on the other the Blessed Virgin's image.

In a little velvet case was the sacred host Father Heslin had taken from his home in Colma a week ago Thursday night for use in the last sacrament he had been called by his kidnappers to administer "to a dying friend."

Papers including a railway rate certificate, a garage bill, bills of lading for furniture and similar articles were also found.

William Hightower, a mechanic, furnished the clew which led to the discovery and guided the searchers composed of himself, Chief of Police O'Brien, of San Francisco, Constable Landini of Colma, and three newspaper men to the grave. Hightower had found the grave first through a story told him by a woman known as Dolly Mason of Salt Lake City, whose suspicion had been aroused by the disconnected statements of a drunken foreigner who had called upon her.

"You better be afraid of this gun,"
the foreigner had told her. "It has killed a man."

"But he is not alone. Besides his grave sits a man also frying pancakes."

Hightower found the grave within sight of a sign familiar in the west,
picturing an old "desert rat" frying pan cakes over a little fire.

Hightower had found signs of a grave but investigated no further. He told a newspaper reporter and last night the searching party went out and unearthed the body of the missing priest.

Father Heslin had been shot through the heart, probably at the brink of the grave. Cartridges were scattered nearby.

There was nothing to indicate long Father Heslin was held captive

DR. HALL DEFENDS POLITICAL PARTIES

Teachers' Institute Speaker Says
They Are Essential in Democratic
Form of Government

SCORES HIRAM JOHNSON

Recalls Attempt He Made in California to Abolish Parties—Need
For Nominations

Dr. Arnold B. Hall of the University of Wisconsin came to the defense of political parties in his lecture before the Rush county teachers' institute this morning, continuing the series on habits of critical thinking.

"The political party is no better than the people who compose it," he said. "And a political party has the same clientele as the churches and every other organization of the community."

"Why is it then," he asked, "that people, when they divide themselves into political parties, have to get nasty and mean? Why do they have to forget that they are American citizens and should always act for the best interests of their common country? Political parties are merely the division of the people for the purpose of expressing the popular will
and are essential in a democratic
form of government."

Dr. Hall said that a professor in the University of Wisconsin once asked him why it was necessary to have nominations and he assumed that if a man of his intelligence put such a question, that it would not be out of place to give the answer
in his discussion of political parties.

He answered it by giving an example from his own life. When he was in the grades in school, the lecturer said, the superintendent of the schools one year instructed the pupils to march to the cemetery on Decoration Day and requested that each room elect one boy to act as captain.

"Now if that teacher had had any political sense," he continued, "she would have had two or three boys nominated and one of them would have been elected. But instead she instructed each pupil to vote for a captain and the worst boy in the room was elected with four votes. He promised to trade votes with the boy in front of him, behind him and across the aisle from him, and then

BURNS FROM SCALDING ARE FATAL TO CHILD

Two-Year-Old Helen Goodson Expires at Home of Her Parents in Circleville

LITTLE HOPE FOR RECOVERY

Burns from scalding water proved fatal for Helen Goodson, little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Don Goodson, who fell into a bucket of scalding water at their home in Circleville Tuesday noon. The baby expired shortly after eleven o'clock last night. Physicians had almost given up hope yesterday afternoon when the child showed signs of growing weaker.

The accident was one of the most horrible that has taken place here recently. Mrs. Goodson, mother of the baby had placed a bucket of hot water on the floor, and had just turned around when the little tot
fell backwards into the vessel, scald-ing it from the neck down.

On account of the seriousness of the burns, little hope was held out for its recovery, although there was a possibility of the child recovering.
The baby was two years old in May,
and besides the parents, is survived by a brother, William Joseph.

The remains have been removed from the Goodson home in Circleville
to the home of its grandparents.
Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, 529
North Sexton street, where funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at two o'clock in charge of the Rev. C. S. Black. Burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

SMALL PLANNING TO STRIKE BACK

Governor to Exhibit "Ramifications of Protected Vice" Behind His Prosecution

FIRST BLOW ON THE SHERIFF

Small Expresses Great Bitterness Towards Him For Refusing to Accept Bond at Mansion.

Springfield, Ills., Aug. 11—Governor Len Small planned today with his attorneys to strike back at
"character assassins" who he charges
are attempting to ruin him.

The state executive while awaiting trial on charges of misuse of millions of dollars of state money,
was making arrangements to exhibit to "public view all of the ramifications of protected vice and crime supplementary to my prosecution" he stated.

The first offensive blow directed by the governors staff, is expected to fall on Sheriff Henry Mester who arrested the executive. Governor Small expressed great bitterness because the sheriff refused to accept bond at the governor's mansion, but paraded him "through a mob that had gathered to jeer and insult the governor."

Fred Mortimer, state's attorney
who conducted the grand jury probe,
is also expected to be the subject of an attack by the governor's force.

The governor was in conference with his attorneys throughout Wednesday and planned to meet them again today. Most of their consultation was over the plans for exposing the "plot" which they claim is behind Small's prosecution.

The governor and his advisers decided on the course which they will pursue in fighting the indictments before the executive submitted to arrest.

Three courses were open for them
to fight the case in the courts.
They were:

- 1—Petition for a change of venue
and permit the case to go to trial in a nearby county. The governor will never consent to a trial in Sangamon county.
- 2—Appeal to the supreme court on the contention of the governor that he is not subject to rule of the courts because of his executive position.
- 3—Surrender the governor's bond of $50,000 before a "friendly judge" in a county outside of Sangamon.
petition for a writ of habeas corpus,
and obtain the governor's release,

FORMAL CALL FOR PARLEY IS ISSUED

Invitation to Disarmament and Pacific Conference is Sent to The Various Powers

WILL BE MADE PUBLIC LATER

(By A. L. BRADFORD)
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Aug. 11.—President Harding's formal call for the Washington disarmament and Pacific conference was sent out to the various powers invited to the parley today.

After presenting the invitations to the ambassadors today, the text of the invitation will be made public by Secretary of State Hughes.

With the issuance of the invitations, Hughes faced three problems
in connection with the conference.
They are:

- 1—Whether agenda outlining the scope of the Pacific and Far Eastern discussions in the parley can be successfully agreed upon before the opening of the conference.
- 2—The fight which has already broken out over the question of publicity for the conference.
- 3—The apparently strong possibility that has now arisen that the premiers of Great Britain, France and Italy may not come to the parley,
which might open the way for suggestions that these powers were giving it only secondary attention.

INSTITUTE LECTURERS TALK TO KIWANIS CLUB

Dr. Arnold B. Hall and Prof. A. O.
Deweese Speak at the Regular Noon Luncheon

IS HELD AT THE CITY PARK

The Kiwanis club held the regular weekly meeting on the chautauqua grounds at the city park Wednesday
noon and heard short talks by Dr.
Arnold B. Hall of the University of Wisconsin, teachers' institute lecturer, and Prof. A. O. Deweese of the University of Louisville, platform
manager and institute lecturer.

Dr. Hall made a plea similar to that made at the meeting of the Rotary club Tuesday noon, in which he urged a more thorough teaching of the fundamentals of constitutional liberty in the public schools as the best safeguard against radicalism.
He pointed out that the only sure cure of radical tendencies was a better understanding of American institutions, which have been taken for granted by too many people.

The regular program of the club consisted of a paper by Fred G. Arbuckle on his classification in the Kiwanis club.

A buffet lunch was served by Mrs.
Cornelia Lyons who conducts the refreshments stand at the chautauqua.
She was assisted by the Mattox Circle ladies of the G. A. R.

DISABLED SOLDIERS TO GET SQUARE DEAL

Col. Forbes, Director of New Veterans Bureau Makes Formal Announcement Today

LAYS DOWN PRINCIPLES

Washington, Aug. 11—"Tell the disabled soldiers that he is going to give a square deal from a new deck.
Warn the vultures they have been playing upon the veterans misfortune and that they will be destroyed."

This was the gist of a message sent through the United Press to the war veterans by Colonel Forbes, director of the new veterans bureau.
In his first announcement since taking office Colonel Forbes laid down three principles: that it is the duty of the government not only to equip
the disabled soldiers to make the best living in the highest profession of which he is capable. That responsibility of the government toward the soldier claimants can not be delegated to private persons and that disabled soldiers are wards of the government and as such must
and will be protected.

Forbes will leave Washington
within ten days to visit each of the five hundred institutions now caring for the veterans.

Smoke, army deserter, who had been living in this state under the name of Harry Smith, was married to Miss Eva Irene Cooper, with whom he had lived during the past four years.

They were married in the police ceremony Smoke held one of the two children while his sixteen year old wife held the other two months

In 1917 he was placed under the

lor. From there he went to Peru to see his 13 year old wife who accompanied him to this city. The deserter was taken to Fort Harrison this morning where he will be court martialed.

Annual Banquet in Connection With Convention Will be Served Tonight to 600

WILL MOFFETT IS ATTENDING

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 11.—Streets and business houses were a riot of red, yellow and blue today as Anderson turned over the city key to 1,000 fire fighters from over Indiana who began arriving here to attend the annual convention of the Indiana Firemen's Association.

Two hundred and sixty young chickens will be fried for the annual banquet tonight at which 600 plates will be laid. The banquet will be the chief entertainment feature of today.

The convention was formally opened at ten o'clock. Mayor W. J. Black delivered an address of welcome throwing the gates open to the visitors. Burr Hamilton of Marion, president of the firemen responded.

The officers including President Hamilton, Vice President W. M. Grady of Indianapolis; Secretary Frank Miller of Terre Haute; and Directors George Swartz and Gus Bandt of Ft. Wayne; J. J. Hoskinson of Evansville; George Diller of Indianapolis and Charles Brooks of Indianapolis arrived late yesterday.

Secretary Miller said he expects 1,000 firemen from fifty-two Indiana cities. The firemen will come in two shifts, he said, half of the delegation from each city coming today and half tomorrow.

Will Moffett of the Rushville fire department is attending the convention, being the only member of the department or city administration in attendance.

TRANSFER MAN SOUGHT IN SEATTLE MYSTERY

Alvin Jorgensen Who Haunted Body of Mrs. Kate Mahoney to Lake Union April 16.

HUSBAND TO BE ACCUSED

(By United Press)
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 11.—Authorities today sought Alvin Jorgensen, a transfer man who is alleged to have hauled the trunk containing the body of Mrs. Kate Mahoney from the Mahoney apartment to the shore of Lake Union the night of April 16.

Jorgensen disappeared several days ago, previous to discovery of the trunk.

The woman's husband, James Mahoney, will be arraigned late today charged with killing his wife.

Although chemists found no trace of "knockout dopes" in the woman's stomach, authorities hold to the theory that the woman was drugged, jammed into the trunk and finally beaten to death with a hammer.

Attorneys for Mahoney will contend that the body found in the trunk is not that of Mrs. Mahoney.

Officials learned that Jorgensen, the drayman, was summoned to the Mahoney apartment on a rush order at midnight, to move a trunk.

The Hazelton bridge across the White river in Knox and Gibson county will be the largest project started. Actual work on the bridge will start some time in the winter, he said.

On August 30, the commission will let contracts for the borings only. The borings will be made to ascertain to what depth the contractors may go to find solid rock river bed on which to set the piles.

Other bridges the contracts call for are new bridge over a drainage ditch in Henry county; new bridge over Flatrock Creek also in Henry county.

STREET CARS FACE RUIN SAYS EXPERT

Peter Witt Says Adoption of Zone Fare System and Charge What it is Worth, is Remedy.

TWO CITIES HAVE QUIT

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 11.—Street railways face ruin unless the zone fare system is put in operation, Peter Witt, foremost traction expert of the country said today.

"The street car companies at Des Moines and Bay City, Mich., were forced to quit because the value of a dollar changed, prices soared and fares remained the same," said Witt. "When relief did come, it came too late."

Many of the nation's street car companies are facing bankruptcy, said Witt. The remedy, he said, "is the adoption of the zone fare system and charge what a ride is worth. In other words if a man rides nine blocks, he should not be forced to pay as much as a man who rides nine miles."

ABATEMENT PLEA IS GOOD

Sherman Addison is Freed of Serious Charge Today

Justice Stech this morning sustained the plea in abatement in the case of Cora Six against Sherman Addison, and the defendant was released from trial today, when the court ruled that his plea in abatement was good as he had shown the court that his residence had been established in Anderson, and not in this county. The case was filed by Miss Six on the day before the charge would have been outlawed on account of the lapse of two years. The charge was for paternity proceedings, and the plaintiff alleged that the defendant was the father of her two year old baby.

When arrested Addison was found near Carthage, but attorneys disclosed the fact that his residence was in Madison county, outside the jurisdiction of the local court, and in the meantime the action is outlawed.

Martinsville, Ind., Aug. 11.—Eighteen men, seven said to be members of the Indianapolis police force, were arrested near Brooklyn, Morgan county, last night in the biggest raid ever made by the Indiana game wardens. Four others escaped. The men arrested were said to have been seining in Compton's Hole, a fishing spot in White Lick river, with a one hundred foot net. NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

New York, Aug. 11.—Bear still appeared to be counting on lack of buying power in the stock market here today. Several issues were forced down by their attacks. American sugar broke to a new low at 61 1-4, on selling induced by more widespread knowledge of the passing of the company's dividend. United States Steel was heavy at the opening and down 3-8 to 73 3-4, on the first transaction.

Equipment and industrial stocks generally were heavy. Bearish professionals found bad news awaiting them in the fact that Western Union financing was not so important as they had believed. In their efforts to retire short contracts they found a shortage of the stock at the previous close. The issue started at 78 1-2 a recovery of 2 1-2 points of the loss sustained yesterday.

The market was irregular at the opening. Prices included: U. S. Steel 73 3-4, off 3-8 Baldwin Locomotive 73 1-2, off 1-2; American Woolen 69 1-4 unchanged. Congress Asked to appropriate $200,000,000 to Pay Railroads

Washington, Aug. 11.—Congress was called on to appropriate $200,000,000 to make final settlements between the government and the railroads. Director General Davis told the senate interstate commerce committee today in continuing his testimony on the administration railroad credit bill.

Davis said "the end of liquidation of federal control is in sight." By December 31, 1922, he said "everything but some 'tag ends' ought to be settled up."

HOME WRECKED BY BOMB

Waukegan, Ill., Aug. 11.—The home of A. V. Smith, district attorney of Lake county was wrecked early today by a bomb blast. Both Smith and his wife escaped injury, outside of the shock from the heavy explosion.

MINE BOSSES ATTACKED

Sullivan, Ind., Aug. 11.—Three mine bosses were driven from Sullivan county by threats of mob violence. WHITE HUSSARS

the subject, "The Transportation Problem," which Former Governor W. L. Harding of Iowa was to discuss.

Governor Harding was introduced to the audience last night during the intermission in the White Hussars concert and spoke for about five minutes in a light vein. He revealed a very pleasing personality and a talent for wit and humor which is bound to please a chautauqua audience.

The Dixie Girls made their first appearance on the afternoon program in the prelude and will be on again tonight for one hour preceding the illustrated lecture by Prof. Paul L. Haworth of Indianapolis, lecturer and explorer, who will give an illustrated address on his exploration of a large and heretofore unpenetrated area of northern Canada. The platform manager announced last night that Prof. Haworth discovered the mountain range where Dr. W. E. Stone, late president of Purdue, met his death recently. The stereopticon will be used to show views of the perilous journey of Prof. Haworth and his party during the two visits they made to that region.

Coming Friday is the renowned Harry Leiter Light Opera company, which will give a prelude in the afternoon and a full concert at night, at which time they will probably present a popular light opera in costume. The Leiter company headed by Harry Leiter, baritone, is composed of four vocalists and a soloist. It is one of the established organizations in chautauqua circles which has won great renown for its splendid work. Other members of the company are Hazel Huntley, contralto; Martha Cook, soprano; Joseph Kendrick, tenor; Harrison W. Burch, pianist and accompanist.

Friday afternoon at 2:30 the lecture will be by Dr. M. H. Liehter, a popular and an eloquent orator of Massachusetts. His lectures are said to be highly inspirational and of a quality which leave behind something to think about.

No musical organization comes to the chautauqua more highly recommended than Sholles' Family orchestra, which will close the chautauqua with programs Saturday and Sunday. Their first appearance will be in a full concert Saturday afternoon and they will give the preludes on the remaining three programs.

The company is made up of six persons, father, four sons and a daughter. Fifteen different musical instruments are played by members of the orchestra, which is indication of their versatility. The orchestra combination embraces violin, cello, clarinet, piano, cornet or trombone and drums.

There is said not to be a more unique entertainment on the American platform than that of Smith Damron in his entertainment-lecture entitled: "The Potter and His Clay." This will be given upon the chautauqua program on Saturday evening. Mr. Damron is a practical potter, having worked at the trade for years. He is an expert with the potter's wheel and in full view of the audience he will make several vessels of clay on the old fashioned potter's turning wheel.

Mr. Damron will describe the processes of the art, giving its history and illustrates this portion of his entertainment with a remarkable display of American Art Pottery and China Ware. When into his description of the various phases of the art, are woven character building, as well as wit, humor and philosophy. Gems of literature are brought to mind by the evolutions of the clay in the deft hands of the master craftsman, until the program, like one of his own finished bits of ware, becomes a wonderfully beautiful bit of platform art. In all the many attractions entertaining the American people from the platform, there is nothing else quite so unique and at the same time so valuable in its wholesome effects as this lecture demonstration by Smith Damron.

voted for himself, which gave him four votes, while every other boy in the room voted for himself.

"So it is in political parties," the speaker continued, "there must first be nomination of party candidates in order that the popular will may be expressed. If no nominations are held, the result is very likely to be like it was in the school room."

Dr. Hall recalled how Senator Hiram Johnson tried to abolish political parties by referendum vote in California a few years ago.

"I have always wanted to have a little talk with Hiram about that," the speaker said. "I would like to ask him who would pick the candidates if California did away with their political parties. He would very probably say that he would assume that responsibility. I would like to ask him who would write the platform in the event that there were no parties. Hiram, being a very generous fellow, probably would have consented to do that too. I would like to ask him who would educate the people on the issues in the campaign. I don't believe Hiram would be averse to doing that also."

"The truth of the matter is that if Senator Johnson's scheme had carried, he would have become the uncrowned king of California. There never was a more monstrous issue presented to the American people in the name of decency. And the pity of it is that Senator Johnson almost got away with it. He proposes to put a penalty on people getting together to settle issues regarding their own well being."

"When you find a person who is willing to abolish any institution without thinking of an alternative, you find one who is not trained in critical thinking. If the people of Father Heslin never returned. The following day Archbishop Edward Hanna, of the San Francisco diocese received a letter supposedly from the kidnappers demanding $6,500 ransom, giving instructions for its payment and saying Father Heslin would be tortured and killed if the ransom were not paid.

MORE TIME ALLOWED REA

Permitted 15 Days More to Draw up Pennsy Agreement With Men

(By United Press)

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The United States railroad labor board granted the request of Samuel Rea, president of the Penna railroad for a fifteen day extension of the time limit for election of committee to draw up working agreements with the men.

Rea's message asking the extension of the time limit which was originally set to expire on August 10, was received from Philadelphia where the directors of the road held an all day session yesterday, apparently debating whether they would submit to the board's orders to take steps to arrange working agreements or face a strike threat.

Give Him a Chance

Hundreds of thousands of foreigners have been flocking into this country since the war. Millions more will seek entrance in the years to come.

Whether or not they will become good citizens and eventually good Americans will depend as much upon us as upon them.

They come to us in comparative ignorance of American manners, customs and traditions. They will learn principally that which is taught them by others.

If they fall among the minority element that disparages law and order and good government it will not be surprising if time finds many of them allied with that class.

But if they find the kindly and paternal hand of the government outstretched to greet and guide them there is every reason to expect that they will develop into good and valuable citizens.

Some effort is being made to enlighten these immigrants upon their arrival in the United States, but it is only a beginning and the end is too quickly reached. It can hardly accomplish the full purpose for which it is designed.

A more comprehensive and detailed course of instruction in the duties of American citizenry and business activity should be provided every foreigner who lands upon our shores in future years, and not one of them should be sent out into the hive of American industry until he has acquired a clear understanding of the opportunities before him and of the duties that devolve upon him.

Good citizens are what we want, but good citizens are not made standing idly by while the untutored walk into the waiting arms of those who thrive at the expense of good society and rational government. Give the immigrant a chance.

Director Forbes of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance advocates a re-examination of world war veterans with a view of "speedily adjusting cases where justice has been denied through an excessive amount of red tape. He says the bureau has suffered and is still suffering from too much "affidavitism". Colonel Forbes is doing his utmost to put more human interest into the work of his bureau, and give every claimant all he is entitled to in the shortest possible time.

President Harding showed his good sense by appointing able men to his cabinet and now he is showing continued good sense by letting them run their departments. He is an able and strong man in good health, but no one man is able enough or strong enough or in sufficient good health to handle all the problems of the government alone.

A New York physician says that the prevalence of divorce in proportion to the growing wealth of the country is due to a change in function of the pituitary body. Now we know all about it.

The day of the soap box orator has passed. Boxes are too expensive.

Women are quick to claim their newly made prerogatives in all things except the payment of the family bills.

Men and women are now considered equal, except wherein it interferes with the prejudices of the men.

Most women are guided by instinct, but a few refuse to be guided at all.

WHEN HE GROWS UP,
HE'LL BE A BIG BOY
When Emanuel Dewitt grows up, he will be a big boy. He's now only eleven years old, but he weighs two hundred and four pounds and is almost five feet in height. Young Dewitt enjoys good health. He lives three miles northwest of Arlington.

KU KLUX KLAN BREEZED
IN AND THEN OUT AGAIN
South Bend, Ind., Aug. 11—Several good fellows of fraternal spirit had visions of another organization founded upon the principle of the brotherhood of mankind when a man breezed into town and said he was an organizer of the Ku Klux Klan. Many of them "jined up" and things were rolling smoothly until the police said the city could get along without the Ku Klux Klan.
The organizer returned to Chicago and all that his followers have is the memory. They are "out" the money they invested in the society.

CHANGES MADE IN H. S. NET RULES

Joint Committees on Basketball Prepare Rules For Opening of Season in October

SEVERAL RULES CHANGED

Other Changes Are Made in Order to Make Clearer Points Under
Old Rules Laid Down

By HEZE CLARK
(Written for United Press)

Indianapolis, Aug. 11.—In preparation for the opening of the basketball season in many Indiana high schools next month, the joint basketball rules committee has made several changes in the official rules for this season.

The joint rules committee is formed of three committees, representing the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the Young Men's Christian Association, and the Amateur Union of the United States.

Most of the changes were made to clarify the old rules. One revision has been made to indicate that backboards are parallel to the end lines. Another requires that the substitutes not only report to the referee, but be recognized by the referee, and this rule has been changed to make it more definite.

An important change, or interpretation, is in Rule 6, Section 5, which says that a player who makes four personal fouls automatically removes himself from the game, the referee simply announcing the fact. Emphasis is put on the authority of the referee and the umpire to see that players do not stand near the referee and players where the ball is tossed up.

Rule seven is made much clearer. It gives the player the same privilege in starting a dribble as is now allowed in making a pass or throwing for a goal. The note to this rule is changed so as to include the player's getting rid of the ball as well as stopping as soon as possible.

The rule that the hand of a player jumping for a ball tossed by the referee is made plainer. A change has been made in the time-out rule. The referee can order time out only for a double foul, injuries to players, for substitutions, or upon request of a captain. If a captain requests time out, the referee shall allow it only if his team is in possession of the ball, except in case of injury. A substitution except in case of injury is limited to thirty seconds. Not more than two minutes shall be permitted for any time out. Time out is allowed only three times for each team during each game.

CLAIM AGENTS ARE AFTER FIST TITLE

This Time The Crown of Benny Leonard is Going on Market for Loudest Talker

LEW TENDLER AS CLAIMANT

Wants X-Ray Picture of Leonard's Shattered Bone to Prove That it Was Broken

By HENRY L. FARRELL

New York, Aug. 11.—Claim agents are beginning to go after another fist title. This time the crown of Benny Leonard is going on the market for the loudest talker.

Lew Tendler the Philadelphia light weight, was to have met Leonard Friday night in Philadelphia for the title but the champion broke a metacarpal and the show is off.

The Philadelphian says now that all he wants out of the wreck is an X-ray of the shattered bone. If he can get evidence to support his contention that Leonard is not hurt, he is going to "claim" the lightweight title.

For two years Tendler has been telling that Leonard is not a light weight, that he couldn't and wouldn't make 130 pounds. He insinuates that the champion found he couldn't make the weight agreed upon and ran out of the match.

Tendler is going to weigh in tomorrow afternoon and if the champion doesn't show up to go on the scales he says he might be forced to collect the $5,000 forfeit as bail for his wrecked hopes.

Leonard is silent and is referring all the dubious ones to the doctors who are taking care of his lame hand.

Tendler, in full sympathy with the promoters who have had to call off other shows in which the champion was billed as one of the principals, says he will fill in and incidentally collect the purse that was offered to Leonard.

He is willing to take on Mel Coogan and Rocky Kansas, but he says not a word about letting Pinkie Mitchell take Leonard's place in the ring with him.

New York, Aug. 11.—Charley White and Johnny Dundee fought a ten round draw here last night. On the same card, Midget Smith won a ten round decision from Young Montreal. Johnny Huff won a ten round decision from Charley Ledoux.

Shelbyville, Ind., Aug. 11.—Announcement was made today that Larabee and Moore, who have been pitching for the Nationals of this city this season, will be retained for the remainder of the year. That two pitchers have been on the doubtful list for several weeks and it was the general opinion they would be suspended from the team here.

New York, Aug. 11.—Tex Rickard announced today he had closed the world's middle weight championship bout between Johnny Wilson and Bryan Downey for labor day in his Jersey City arena. Wilson will get 36 percent of the gate receipts and Downey's end will be 20 percent.

Watching The Score Board

Yesterday's hero—Leon Cadore, the Brooklyn Hurler. He singled in the fifth inning and drove in the run that gave him the second victory over the Pirates in the series. Score: 1 to 0.

Ruth's 42nd and a pair of homers by Frank Baker, helped the Yanks to go back in his place with a 14 to 8 victory over the White Sox.

Seven hits including a homer by Walker and three errors in the 7th inning gave the Athletics 7 runs and a win over the Indians.

After losing ten straight to the Red Sox the Tigers finally broke through and grabbed one 8 to 4.

The Browns madeit three out of four, the Senators taking the last game.

The Reds and Cards split a double bill. The Cards won the first 6 to 4, but the pitching and hitting of Coumbe gave the Reds the second, six to three.

THIS TIME LAST YEAR

Williams, Phils., made his thirteenth homer at Philadelphia.
Wright, left fielder for Flint (Mich.) hit three homers against Saginaw. He also got a single and a sacrifice.
The Giants took a double-header from the Pirates, 5 to 1 and 6 to 3.
Babe Ruth was injured in a game at Cleveland.

The regular meeting of the W. R. C. was held yesterday in the G. A. R. room in the court house. The regular program and business session was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Brown and family entertained at dinner Sunday at their home near Falmouth the following guests: Mrs. T. E. Walker, of this city and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hokey and little son Charles, Jr., of east of the city.

The Pursel Reunion Association will hold its annual reunion next Sunday August 14 at the J. D. Case residence in this city. Most of the members of the association, the descendants of Peter Pursel, live in Indianapolis and north of Indianapolis. The local members of the association are the sons of the late Theodore Abercrombie and their families and J. D. Case and family. The annual picnic dinner will be served at noon in the basement of the new J. D. Case residence in North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wolcott, lately of Rushville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Marguerite to Rudolph Horrell Chauncey, which took place at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Walter Horrell, at Long Beach, California, Wednesday, August 10. Miss Wolcott was a graduate of the local high school, and of Indiana University. For the past two years she has been an instructor in the Olney, Illinois, high school. She is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and the Psi Iota Xi sorority. Mr. Chauncey is engaged in the creamery business in Los Angeles.

The Rebekah Crochet club meeting which was to have been held Friday afternoon of this week, has been postponed until next Thursday afternoon, August 18. At that time Mrs. Belle Edwards of West Tenth street will entertain the members.

The farewell reception last Friday night at the Friends church in Carthage for the pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Furstenbayer, was one of the most pleasant and interesting ever held at that church for an outgoing minister.

The program was well rendered and well received. Talks from all of the local pastors the Rev. Mr. Hawkins, Jean and Lumaer, who have unitedly worked in the federation of churches with the Rev. Mr. Furstenbayer, spoke on their appreciation of his help and the efforts put forth in the interest of the work and the bond of fellowship existing. The talks make the separation more keenly felt but they hoped the same blessing might attend his labor in his new field of service.

There were also present other ministers from different churches the Rev. Mr. Addington of Little Blue; the Rev. Tennyson Lewis of Charlottesville; the Rev. Daniel Ryan of Morristown; Dr. Woodard of Knightstown, and the quarterly meeting superintendent, Alva Swain. These ministers also gave short talks regarding their pleasant association with the departing minister and added their benediction to follow him wherever he may locate.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Furstenbayer spoke very feelingly of their stay in Carthage and the many strong ties of friendship formed; and hoped they might prove worthy of their friends. The musical numbers given were very pleasing as was also the readings, vocal or instrumental solos and all brought forth applause from the large audience. At the close refreshments of punch and wafers were served and the social hour was very much enjoyed.

TO ACCUSE WOMAN OF COMPLICITY

State Will Charge Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain of Having Part in Murder of Kennedy

BURCH THOUGHT CULPRIT

Authorities Expect to Show She Forced Her Attention on Kennedy And Was Spurned

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 11.—Madalynne Obenchain today sent this telegram to her former husband, Ralph B. Obenchain in Chicago: "Dear Ralph: Wire me immediately in county jail, if you can leave at once. Will be indicted in the morning. Don't worry. Signed, Madalynne."

Numerous denials were made today of the theory that Mrs. Obenchain was attempting to force Kennedy to marry her to give a name to her unborn child. According to matrons at the county jail, they had no knowledge of Mrs. Obenchain about to become a mother.

At the district attorney's office it was announced that it would not follow out any such theory in presenting the case to the grand jury.

BULLETIN

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 11.—A "vampire woman" who sought to force one of her victims to give a name to her unborn child—that is the picture the state will draw of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain today in asking her indictment on a charge of complicity in the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, insurance broker.

The authorities will attempt to show that Mrs. Obenchain is to become a mother as the result of her relations with Kennedy, that Kennedy refused to marry her and was shot by Arthur C. Burch, whose indictment also will be sought.

As evidence of the woman's great magnetism will be presented the fact that Burch whom she referred to as only a "platonic friend" of her college days, hurried across the continent in response to a single telegram which Under Sheriff Manning says, read:

"Things look bad here. Please come at once." "MADALYNNE."

The state will contend that Kennedy who was stronger willed than Burch attempted to extricate himself from the web Mrs. Obenchain had woven about him, was shot by Burch during an altercation when he refused to listen to Burch's pleadings that he marry Mrs. Obenchain.

The story, as reconstructed by the state, furnishes one of the most amazing examples of selfless devotion—Burch, alleged to be madly in love with Mrs. Obenchain, blindly heeding her beck and call through the years, and finally sacrificing his freedom and possibly his life to win another man as her husband.

Under Sheriff Manning thus described the presentation that will be made to the grand jury:

"Burch has been identified as the man who rented an auto. The tire tracks in the road at the Glen corresponded with those of the machine he rented.

"We believe he was waiting at the Glen for Mrs. Obenchain and Kennedy to come. We do not believe murder was premeditated.

"We will present evidence to the grand jury to show that Burch with a shot gun in his hands, approached Kennedy and insisted that he marry her at once—that night. In an effort to frighten Kennedy we believe Burch fired.

"According to a neighbor, an interval of a minute and a half elapsed before the second shot. In this period, it is our contention that an argument ensued and that Kennedy, despite the shot gun pointed at him, attempted to draw his revolver.

"He wasn't quick enough, he was found dead with the revolver in his hand. This scene was expected to bring about a marriage—and ended in a murder."

Burch in his cell gave the United Press his first authorized statement today:

"I knew Madalynne Obenchain when we were in college together. We were good chums then; that was all. I will tell the story as soon as my attorneys who will include some of the most prominent in the country are definitely decided upon.

"My parents are behind me and have the fullest confidence in me. That means a great deal to me. My father is on the way here from Chicago. I expect to see him in a day or two. Meanwhile the rest must wait.

"I feel that any statement regarding Madalynne and myself should come from her," he explained. "She is in great difficulty now. I would not want to cause her any trouble—I

Elsie Ferguson at Princess

Ah, the perils of a two week's vacation in the movies!

Such an interval was allowed Conrad Nagel between the first and final episodes of "Sacred and Profane Love," the William D. Taylor production for Paramount in which he appears opposite, the star, Elsie Ferguson.

Within the period Nagel changes from a spick and span concert pianist to an absolute drunkard, one step short of the Paris gutters.

"This ruining a reputation is desperately hard work!" confided the leading man to a studio friend as he caressed a week's growth of beard and rubbed in red paint at the proper points to give a dissipated appearance.

The success of his make-up, however, adds much to the success of the photoplay for it is in Carlotta's self-sacrificing regeneration of the fallen man that the principal drama occurs. "Sacred and Profane Love" will be shown at the Princess Theatre for the last time today. Other players who have added to the success of the production include Raymond Brathwayt, Thomas Holding, Winifred Greenwood, Helen Dunbar and Howard Gaye.

From Desert to Ballroom

Although "Danger Valley," the latest Neal Hart picture, is a story of the desert and was actually filmed amidst the heat and desolation of Death Valley, some of the earlier scenes portray the luxury and gaiety of New York society life. One of the biggest and most magnificent ballroom sets ever used in pictures was erected for the filming of this part of the picture, and over 100 extra people were employed, "Danger Valley" will be seen at the Mystic theatre Saturday.

Don't Burn Good Fuel in a Poor Stove. TAKE

PEPSINCO

It's a useless waste of good fuel and needless extravagance to try to burn it in a poor stove. It is absolutely wrong to expect good food to supply energy, vitality, health and happiness, if your stomach won't absorb and assimilate it. If you cannot eat with enjoyment; if your food does you no good; if food distresses, rather than benefits, then you have indigestion or dyspepsia. The best remedy to use is PEPISINCO.

The Art of Industry

A PROMINENT editorial writer says that the records of Caruso's wonderful voice will be enjoyed for a thousand years, and that this is close to immortality.

This wonderful heritage for posterity is made possible by the art of industry.

But the art of industry has accomplished other things as well.

Sixty years ago men found oil in quantities, from which they produced light.

The Standard Oil Company took that oil and, in addition to light, produced from it, power, and lubricants for the parts which transmit the power—not to mention hundreds of other useful products.

Fifty years ago people were delighted with the oil which gave them abundant light; but none could foresee the development which this "Rock Oil" would make possible.

It was the vision and courage of the men who founded the Standard Oil Company that made it possible for the automotive industry to come into being.

It is the ability of the men who manage the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) of today that has made it possible for the automobile to develop from the clumsy vehicle of twenty years ago to the smoothly-driven machine of today.

For the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) constantly anticipated demand and produced gasoline of such quality, and in such quantity, and distributed it in a manner so thorough, that the automotive manufacturer could produce in large enough quantities to keep his product within the range of the modest purse.

The art of industry is exemplified in the achievements of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), which will live for centuries, and benefit posterity in a practical way, as the perpetuation of Caruso's voice will benefit in an aesthetic way.

WHO INITIATED THE WASHINGTON MEET

This is a Problem Being Debated at London and Likely to Prove Subject for Historians

DEBATE AROSE OVER SPEECH

Lloyd George Sought to Provoke
The Talked-of Invitation From Washington on Far East Question

(By United Press)

London, Aug. 11—Who initiated the pending Washington disarmament and Pacific Conference? President Harding or Lloyd George?

This is a problem which is being very freely debated here, and one which is likely to prove a contentious subject for future historians.
The average member of the British public doesn't vastly care either way, but he readily concedes that Lloyd George, with characteristic
"Welsh Wizardry" and acumen, has managed to get in first and rake off in advance a good share of any credit which may accrue to the promoters—without, however, incurring much blame if things fall through.

Disinterested officialdom say that the question can only be honestly answered by the select few who thoroughly understand the inner meaning of the little diplomatic juggle with the staid pages of "Hansard"—the British Parliamentary Official Record—a few weeks ago.

July 7, Lloyd George, rising in the House of Commons, to answer a harmless-looking question about the Anglo-Japanese Treaty, said that he hoped to make a full statement on the following Monday (July 11), but that it would depend upon "replies received from the United States, Japan and China." This was the version given by every reporter
in the Press Gallery of the House of Commons. There were a few differences in the actual wording, some papers saying: "United States and Japan," others only quoting "United States and China," while the majority included all three countries.

"Hansard's" report is never published until the following day as the House of Commons does not rise until 11 p. m., and very often sits into the early hours of the morning. But

Not A Luxury —A Necessity!

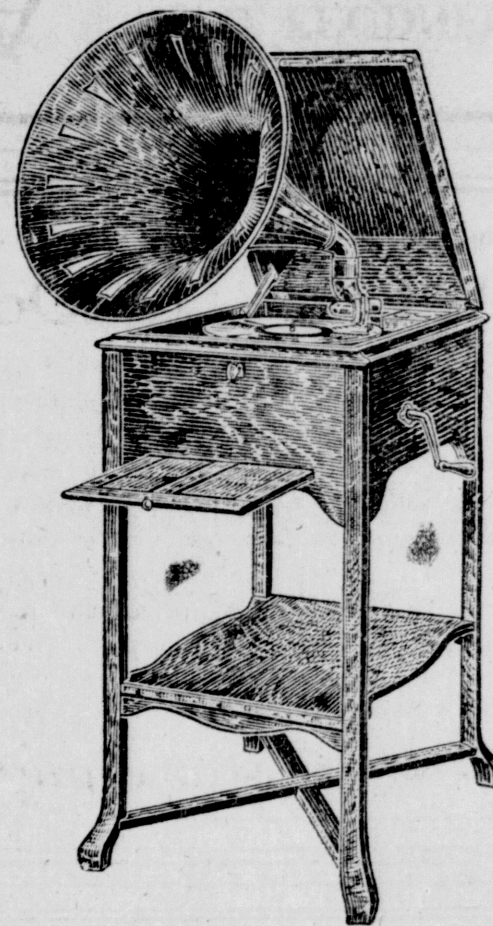

The genuine Victrola is no longer considered a luxury in the modern school or home—it is a necessity. Music is a language and should be heard long before it is read or even written. Neglect of ear training in early childhood can never be fully made up by any amount of musical education in later years. Today little children learn to listen and later listen to learn by means of the incomparable

VICTROLA

Victor Educational Records are the result of years of highly specialized experience in making music for little children. A pioneer in the educational field, the genuine Victrola and Victor Records have become the standard by which all other musical instruments are judged.
We extend a cordial invitation to parents and teachers to visit us and see the results gained through the Victrola and Victor Records.

meanwhile, energetic American correspondents had cabled this quotation to the United States, and equally energetic colleagues in Washington had been round to the State Department to find out about the presumed "Note" to which the British Premier was evidently expecting a reply.

Washington professed ignorance and said that there was nothing to reply to and within a few hours of Lloyd George's statement in the House of Commons, London editors and Parliamentary experts were worrying themselves thin over the mystery. They naturally went to the Foreign Office and No. 10 Downing street, and something had to be done.

The next day the Foreign Office spokesman blandly referred inquirers to the freshly-printed sheets of "Hansard", which contained no reference to the Premier having mentioned expecting replies from the United States, Japan or China.
"Anybody quoting the Premier differently to the official Parliamentary record must have misunderstood him," was all that could be extracted from the Foreign Office.

Leading newspapers, with implicit faith in their Parliamentary experts, were not satisfied with this and went to the Premier's office. Soon afterward an official statement was issued saying that somehow or other the words "would depend on replies from the United States, Japan and China," had been "omitted" from Hansard, but that these words were actually used by the Premier and had accordingly been inserted in the official record.

There the matter ended officially,
and the newspapers did not press the point any further, for the average British editor has a very high sense of patriotic duty where delicate matters of foreign policy are concerned.

The corrected proofs of Hansard,
for July 7, were not available for inspection, so nobody can say just who eliminated these important words from the Premier's statement. That they were deleted was obvious, also that the deletion could only have been done by somebody close to Lloyd George, if not, indeed the Premier himself. The impression was that Lloyd George, who had been severely baited in preceding questions, had said rather more than he had intended when replying to the harmless-looking Anglo-Japanese question, and that he had corrected the error as soon as possible. But the official reinsertion of these words had everybody guessing.

Then, in his promised statement on July 11, Lloyd George blandly stated that when he said he expected "replies from the United States, Japan and China" he meant that Curzon had had conversations with the United States and Japanese Ambassadors and the Chinese Minister, in which he had laid before them the views of the British Cabinet, and that he had promised to report any replies they might receive.

The explanation generally favored was, that Lloyd George feeling compelled to do something about the Anglo-Japanese Treaty and to meet the views of the Dominion Premiers, then in conference in London, had sought to provoke the talked-of, but so far unmaterialized, invitation from Washington on the Far Eastern question.

Washington "came across," and if this was his object, it was attained very nicely. And as Washington was the only capital that really mattered, the question of a conference was happily launched.

But did Lloyd George invite Harding, or did Harding invite Lloyd George?

Kidney and Bladder Troubles Conquered or Money Back

School Children's Eyes

Make this school year easier for your child by having its eyes attended to NOW. If you protect the naturally defective eyes of youth, you are repaid with a strong eye in after life. Abuse the immature eye and it will necessitate glasses—not for a few months only, but for a lifetime.

Many a child has been a dullard at school and a failure in after life simply because some defect in vision made it impossible to see things clearly.

The brain gets most of its information through the eyes, and if the eyes are defective the child is woefully handicapped.

Let us examine your child's eyes now.
